

Proclamation
GEORGIA CITIES WEEK
April 20-26, 2014

- WHEREAS: City government is the closest to most citizens, and the one with the most direct daily impact upon its residents; and
- WHEREAS: City government is administered for and by its citizens, and is dependent upon public commitment to and understanding of its many responsibilities; and
- WHEREAS: City government officials and employees share the responsibility to pass along their understanding of public services and their benefits; and
- WHEREAS: Georgia Cities Week is a very important time to recognize the important role played by city government in our lives; and
- WHEREAS: This week offers an important opportunity to spread the word to all the residents of Georgia that they can shape and influence this branch of government which is closest to the people; and
- WHEREAS: The Georgia Municipal Association and its member cities have joined together to teach students and other residents about municipal government through a variety of projects, events, and information; and
- WHEREAS: Georgia Cities Week offers an important opportunity to convey to all the residents of Georgia that they can shape and influence government through their civic involvement.

Now, Therefore, I, Mayor James Thomas, Jr., Mayor of the City of Hinesville, do hereby proclaim April 20-26, 2014, as:

“Georgia Cities Week”

in Hinesville and encourage all residents, city government officials, and employees to join in the celebration at scheduled community events throughout the week.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the great Seal of the City of Hinesville to be affixed this 3rd day of April in the year of our Lord Two Thousand and Fourteen and in the year of our city One Hundred and Seventy Seven.

ATTEST:

Billy Edwards, City Manager

James Thomas, Jr., Mayor
City of Hinesville
