

PROCLAMATION

Feed the Children Day
September 20, 2015

- Whereas: Feed the Children exists to end childhood hunger, the cause upon which it was founded 35 years ago, and the one it continues to fight for each and every day; and
- Whereas: It takes the power of many to end childhood hunger and connection among donors, experts, partners, leaders, and communities to attack the problem from all angles; and
- Whereas: Feed the Children is thriving in a new era marked by Christian values, integrity, resourcefulness, stewardship, and transparency; and
- Whereas: Cinder Entertainment, multiple Grammy Award winner Tye Tribbett, and multiple Dove Award winner Jason Crabb with comedian Akintunde have teamed up to bring together diverse audiences for this common goal; and
- Whereas: Hinesville is home to Full Gospel Tabernacle Church of God in Christ and other organizations also taking a stand and will not rest until every child has enough to eat.

NOW, THEREFORE I, James Thomas, Jr., Mayor of the City of Hinesville do hereby proclaim September 20, 2015 as: in the City of Hinesville and I call upon all residents and civic organizations to join us in recognizing this day as a time to commit to creating a world where no child goes to bed hungry by joining local and national organizations providing hope and resources for those without life’s essentials.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have here unto set my hand and caused the great Seal of the City of Hinesville to be affixed this 17th day of September in the year of our Lord Two Thousand and Fifteen and in the year of our City One Hundred Seventy Eight.
