NEWS RELEASE

City of Hinesville Hours of Operation for Hurricane Dorian

HINESVILLE, Ga. (September 2, 2019) – As of 2 p.m. on Monday, September 2, a mandatory evacuation is still in effect for Liberty County residents east of I-95. A voluntary evacuation has now been issued for the remainder of Liberty County, with an emphasis on low lying and flood prone areas, especially those east of US Hwy 17. This voluntary evacuation does include the City of Hinesville.

City facility and operational hours will be as follows:

Tuesday, September 3: Normal operating hours in effect unless otherwise posted.

Wednesday, September 4: City facilities will be closed and public safety operations will be dedicated to respond to Hurricane Dorian.

Thursday, September 5: City facilities will be closed and public safety operations will be dedicated to respond to Hurricane Dorian.

Friday, September 6: Normal operating hours will resume unless otherwise posted.

PLEASE NOTE: The following are specific closures within the City of Hinesville or City – affiliated services:

- Municipal Court has been cancelled for Wednesday, September 4.
- The Thursday, September 5 City Council meeting has been cancelled.
- Liberty Transit regular and paratransit services will be suspended on Wednesday and Thursday, September 4 and 5. Normal operating hours should resume on Friday, September 6 unless otherwise posted.

Updates to these hours and all Hurricane Dorian information will be posted to the City's social media accounts:
