2019 Pumpkin Patch

HINESVILLE, Ga. (September 12, 2019) – On Saturday, October 12, come out to Bryant Commons to find your “pick of the patch!”

Join the Hinesville Downtown Development Authority (HDDA) for the 2019 Pumpkin Patch and day of fall fun on Saturday, October 12 from 10 a.m. – 2 p.m. at Bryant Commons.

The HDDA invites visitors to peruse dozens of the area’s best and biggest pumpkins to find the perfect Halloween jack-o-lantern or fall decorations. Please note: Pumpkins will be for sale while supplies last.

Event attendees will be able to enjoy hay rides, inflatables, games and crafts and tour the ITPA Museum for FREE! Food vendors will also be on site selling delicious treats.

The 2019 Pumpkin Patch is hosted by the HDDA and sponsored by the Hinesville – Fort Stewart Shriners Club, ITPA Museum and McDonald’s of Hinesville. This event is FREE and open to the public and will be held rain or shine. Weather updates and event cancellations or postponements will be posted to the HDDA’s Facebook page and in the Facebook event group. The 2019 Pumpkin Patch will be Saturday, October 12 from 10 a.m. – 2 p.m. at Bryant Commons. To learn more, visit hinesvilledowntown.com or follow us on Facebook at facebook.com/DowntownHinesville. For questions, please contact Ro Krueger, Program Assistant, at programassistant@hinesvilledowntown.com.
