City of Hinesville Renewal of Emergency Orders, Adopted on April 3, 2020

HINESVILLE, Ga. (Apr. 3, 2020) – On Friday, April 3, the City of Hinesville adopted the Renewal of Emergency Orders aligned with Governor Brian Kemp’s Executive Order issued on Thursday, April 2.

The declaration adopts Governor Kemp’s Shelter-In-Place Executive Order, which takes effect at 6 p.m. on Friday, April 3 and expires Monday, April 13 at 11:59 p.m. unless otherwise modified or terminated by the Governor’s office.

The City’s order will also expire on Monday, April 13 at 11:59 p.m. unless modified or terminated by subsequent order of the Mayor or terminated by resolution of the City Council.

In keeping with Governor Kemp’s order, and previous guidance issued by the City, CDC and other public health agencies, citizens are advised to follow CDC guidelines to distance themselves both socially and physically from their fellows.
